

Steve is an experienced practitioner and guide in both Meditation and Mindfulness for over fifteen years and holds the Wellness of Being events.

Having worked for decades at many levels in government and non governmental organisations Steve is keenly aware of the challenges required to rethink for a sustainable future.

He has completed both the Gaia Education: Design for Sustainability (GEDS) certificate and Trainer of Trainers programme.

Gaia Education is a Key Partner for UNESCO Global Action Programme (GAP) on Education for Sustainable Development (ESD).

<https://gaiaeducation.org/about/>

Steve is also due to complete the Forest School Leadership programme by March 2018.

<http://www.forestschoolassociation.org/what-is-forest-school/>

Bringing together Gaia Education, Forest School along with his Corporate and Meditative experience; Steve's strong interdisciplinary skills to facilitate and consult across many sectors equips him to deliver the experiential change needed to bring about Sustainability champions.

Steve gives talks and writes articles as well as collaborating with Dr.Ron Johnston in the Academic sector, putting on workshops and developing Continuing Professional Development courses. Go to the Academic (ESDGC) page for more on this.

Steve is the founder of The Art of Sustainability.